Altar Flowers: Given in honor of Georgia Hollabaugh, our A.V. Coordinator, by Rayna Cooper.

Centerpiece: In honor of the leadership and dedication of Rayna Cooper over the past challenging year. Thank you for your ministry among us. Looking forward to how you will share your gifts and talents with Trinity in the future.

Pastor Fred and Kara wish to thank the members of trinity for your generous Christmas gift. This year instead of using it to pay bills, we treated ourselves to new living room furniture. Blessings to you for a prosperous and healthy New Year!

ALTAR FLOWERS: Thru COVID 19 we continued to worship on-line but did not have flowers on the Altar. We'd like to start having flowers again whether in-person worship or on-line worship. The chart is in the office. Please call the office to reserve your Sunday.

At our COVID Consistory meeting November 4th it was decided to suspend Sanctuary in-person worship through January 2021. This is also at a recommendation from the staff of the Penn Central Conference. On-line live streaming will continue.

Gettysburg C.A.R.E.S. Breakfasts - January 31st - February 6th - C.A.R.E.S has asked churches to provide breakfast for the homeless who are housed at Three Crowns Motor Lodge, 205 Steinwehr Ave. We will be delivering bagged breakfasts at 8AM Sunday, January 31st through Saturday, February 6th. The supplies for these meals will be in our church kitchen for volunteers to assemble. This includes bags, food, drinks and flatware. There will be instructions on what is to go in the bags. We are looking for two people each day to assemble the bagged breakfasts and be at the motel by 8 AM. Please call Janet Sheely at 717-357-1789 if you are able to help. We appreciate your help and caring attitude. Social Concerns Committee
